

Myron Reimers, age 86, of Carrington, ND, died Sunday, December 18, 2016, in Golden Acres Manor, Carrington.

Myron Reimers was born November 4, 1930, in Bucephalia Township the son of Herman and Annie (Pitra) Reimers. He was the 5th child in a family of 9 children. He enlisted in the Army February 3, 1953 and was honorably discharged February of 1955. He served in the 7th Armored Division. He then returned to the family farm and continued farming until the death of his brother Howard. Although he didn't live on the farm any longer he was always interested in what was going on with the farming and the weather.

He leaves behind two sisters, Viola Bowers and Caroline Wolf; one brother Arnold (Rita) Reimers.

Myron was preceded in death by his parents, sisters, Anna Pederson, Elizabeth Frederickson, Joyce Miller, Verna Reimers, and his brother Howard.

In lieu of flowers the family would like memorials to be made to the Carrington Cemetery or a charity of your choice.

A Farmer's Hands

Hands that are large and tough from years of rugged outdoor work.

Hands with fingers sensitive to music, but too thick to strike just one key on a piano,
or a single string on a violin.

Hands that are versatile, simultaneously wielding an ax
and swiping a fistful of berries from a nearby bush.

Hands that clasp themselves habitually in prayer giving thanks for food, for rain, for sun,
for late frosts, early springs, good yield,
for soil, for health, for a newborn calf.

Hands that are strong,
squeezing out a pail full of milk in just no time,
pulling strands of barbed wire taut, carrying mountains of hay and oceans of water to hungry thirsty farm creatures.

Hands that are gentle, marveling out at the softness of a furry kitten, rescuing a killdeer's nest
from the path of the plow, patting the shoulder of a disappointed child.

Hands that are inventive, twisting, pounding, pinching until a machine is fixed,
shaping an idea into something useful.

Hands that are tired from over a half century of tilling, planting, weeding, harvesting.

Hands that we love - a farmer's hands.
