

Andrew "Andy" Marion Johnson, 97, a longtime resident of Anchorage, AK, passed away on October 3, 2017, at his home. Andy was born on March 15, 1920, in Lexington, KY. He is the youngest son of Marshall and Winifred Johnson growing up on a tobacco and dairy farm. After graduating high school in Lexington, Andy attended two years of college studying business administration and accounting.

In November 1942, Andy enlisted in the U.S. Marines. As a World War II veteran, he served in the South Pacific and was honorably discharged in 1945. With the encouragement of a friend, Andy made the Honor Flight to Washington, D.C. in October 2014. Andy's trip was a most memorable one.

From 1953-1965, he was owner/operator of A.M. Johnson Construction Co. in Erlanger, KY.

Andy came to Alaska in 1965, where he remained until his passing. From 1965-1969 he worked for Carpenters Local Union 1281. In the early 70s, he owned A.J. Construction Company building several homes in the South Anchorage area. Between 1975-1978, he was employed with Pulis Builders as a Construction Superintendent overseeing jobs on Ft. Richardson Army Base, in Glennallen and Seward, AK. His last employment was with Sandland Construction Company as a Construction Superintendent supervising projects throughout AK. After retirement, Andy and his wife, June, were snowbirds. They traveled the Lower 48 visiting family and friends on their way to and from a home in Arizona. In addition, they enjoyed their trips to Seward and Homer where they spent much of their time fishing on the "Carol J".

He is survived by his step-daughters Teresa M. Alyea of Anchorage, AK and Melinda Norwood Lathrop of Bethel, AK. He is also survived by his grandson Alec Marshall Johnson Sr. and his great-grandchild Alec Marshall Johnson Jr. of Tampa, Florida; his nephew Bob (Vicki) Johnson and niece Winnie (Bill) Wilder of Kentucky; his cousin Rebecca "Reba" Hoover of Kentucky and Florida; his sister-in-law Marlene (Robert) Scott and brother-in-law Darryl (Carol) Galt of North Dakota; along with other in-laws and friends.

Andy is preceded in death by his wife of 33 years, Carol June (Galt) Johnson; parents Marshall William and Winifred Scott Johnson; his brother and wife Charles and Henrietta Johnson; Andy's first wife Mary Elizabeth Johnson and their son Richard Scott Johnson; his second wife Patricia M. Johnson and their son Andrew M. Johnson, Jr.; his third wife Mary Reid Johnson.

A Celebration of Life

*Andrew "Andy" Marion Johnson

The Broken Chain

*We little knew that morning
that God would call your name,
in life we loved you dearly
in death we do the same.*

*It broke our hearts to lose you
you did not go alone,
for part of us went with you
the day God called you home.*

*You left us peaceful memories
your love is still our guide,
and though we can not see you
you are always at our side.*

*Our family chain is broken
and nothing seems the same,
but as God calls us one by one
the chain will link again.*

In Loving Memory
