Celebrating the Life Of

Lorraine Carr

November 28, 1923 – January 14, 2018

Until we meet Again

A light from our lives has gone
A voice we loved is still.
A place is vacant within our hearts
Which never can be filled.

A bouquet of beautiful memories
Sprayed with a million tears.
I wish God could have spared you
If just for a few more years.

We hold you close within our hearts,
And there you will remain.
To walk with us throughout our lives
Until we meet again.

So rest in peace dear loved one
And thanks for all you've done.
We pray that God has given you
The crown you've truly won.

Your vacant place no one can fill
We miss you now and always will.
