

Gerald Lyle Lutman, 86, of Carrington, ND, passed away after a long battle with cancer on January 21, 2019, in Phoenix, AZ with family at his side.

Gerald was born August 4, 1932, in Edmunds, ND, to Charles and Mamie (Rue) Lutman. He enlisted in the Navy the summer of 1950 and served in the Korean War during his 4 years. Gerald met Lois Presser in April, 1955, at a local dance and the two became one August 28, 1956.

In 1956, Gerald began working with Donny Jensen in the house moving business, only later to buy him out in 1963 and rename the business to Carrington House Moving, he retired in 1997; however, Gerald could be found out at Carrington House Moving on a daily basis until 2014, due to his health.

His hobbies included hunting, fishing, traveling the world, gardening, farming and ranching. He enjoyed spending time with his family, especially the yearly family reunions on his childhood farm. He was an avid player of pinochle and cribbage, often times claiming he only lost because someone cheated. He had served in the local chapter of the VFW, the Military Order of the Cootie, the American Legion, and the Trinity Lutheran Church, where he was an active member.

He is survived by his wife, Lois; his ten children, Lyle (Deb) Lutman, Langdon, ND, Lynell Lutman, Minot, ND, David (Julie) Lutman, Carrington, ND, Donene (Yabo) Gjellstad, Velva, ND, Pamela Meyer, Arcadia, CA, Paul Lutman, Vista, CA, Janyce (Brad) Feist, Velva, ND, Jenifer (Homero) Rivas, Dubai, UAE, Mark Lutman, Ft Collins, CO, Michael Lutman, Scottsdale, AZ; nineteen grandchildren; twenty-seven great-grandchildren; three sisters, LaVonne Budd, Joan Chaney, and Jenny Rundblad; two brothers Neil and Russell Lutman; numerous nieces, nephews and cousins.

TO EVERY THING THERE IS A SEASON

To every thing there is a season, and a time
To every purpose under the heaven;
A time to be born, and a time to die,
A time to plant, and a time to pluck up
That which is planted;

A time to kill, and a time to heal;
A time to break down, and a time to build up;

A time to weep, and a time to laugh;
A time to mourn, and a time to dance;

A time to case away stones, and a time
To gather stones together; a time to embrace,
And a time to refrain from embracing;

A time to get, and a time to lose;
A time to keep, and a time to cast away;

A time to rend, and a time to sew;
A time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

A time to love, and a time to hate;
A time of war, and a time of peace.

-Ecclesiastes 3:1-8
