

Deloris Esther Omoth, age 93, of Williston, formerly of New Rockford passed away peacefully on Sunday morning, July 21, 2019 at Bethel Lutheran Nursing Home in Williston.

Deloris was born August 22, 1925 in Walla Walla, Washington. She was the sixth of seven children born to Nathaniel and Lydia Seibold. On November 22, 1948, Deloris was united in marriage to Oliver Omoth at the United Methodist Church in New Rockford. They lived on the family farm in Superior Township until Oliver's death in 2007. In 2009, she moved to Sidney, MT, where she lived until entering Bethel Homes in Williston in 2012.

Deloris was a member of the First Lutheran Church of New Rockford. She was very talented in knitting, crocheting, and many types of crafts. She could look at a picture of something in a magazine and sit down and make it the next day. Deloris and Oliver always enjoyed a good game of Whist or Pinochle with friends, working in their garden, and fishing. She was a great cook, hosting many holiday gatherings at the farm. If the gathering was at someone else's house, she was usually asked to "bring the beans". She made sure anyone who visited the farm never left hungry.

She is survived by one son, Alan (Trish) of Fairview, MT; one grandson, Anthony of Devils Lake; two step-granddaughters, Brooke of Spearfish, SD and Alicia of Culbertson, MT; one stepson, Zach of Moorcroft, WY; one brother-in-law, Milton of New Rockford; one sister-in-law, Rae Seibold of Winchester, OR and many nieces and nephews.

Deloris was preceded in death by her parents, husband, Oliver, two sisters, Velma and Geri, four brothers, Archie, Rueben, RG, and Leroy, and infant son, Richard.

August 22, 1925 – Walla Walla, WA
July 21, 2019 – Williston, ND

*God saw she was getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So He put His arms around her
And whispered, "Come to Me."*

*With tearful eyes we watched her suffer
And saw her fade away.
Although we loved her dearly
We could not make her stay.*

*A golden heart stopped beating;
Hard working hands put to rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.*
