

Levi Preston Duda, age 29, of New Rockford, passed away Friday near New Rockford, ND.

Levi Preston Duda was born April 4, 1990, in Carrington, ND, the son of Duane and Annette (Broin) Duda. He grew up in New Rockford, attended school there and graduated from New Rockford/Sheyenne High School in 2008. Levi then attended North Dakota State University for Electrical Engineering before transferring to Moorhead Technical College to become an electrician. Upon graduating, Levi went to work at Denny's Electric in Dickinson, ND, and later at Fetzer Electric LLC in Bismarck. He received his Master Electrician Certification in 2016. Levi returned to New Rockford in 2018 and started Duda Electric LLC.

Levi enjoyed hunting, fishing, Mud Run's, and hanging out with his friends. He could often be found playing cards with his Grandpa Larry. Levi was always there to lend a helping hand to anyone that needed it.

Levi is survived by his parents, Duane and Annette Duda, New Rockford; a sister Kori Duda, New Rockford; grandparents, Iona (Ray) Johnson, Fargo, Larry and Bev Broin, New Rockford; aunts and uncles, Jeanette (Brian) Perleberg, New Rockford, Darrin (Missy) Broin, Fargo, Phyllis (Jeff) Parsons, Dickinson, Linda (Jeff) Wobbema, Minot, Patti (Rick) Eisenzimmer, Minot, and Dawn (Chuck) Putney, West Fargo; and many cousins.

He was preceded in death by his grandfather, Lyle Duda.

He Is Gone

You can shed tears that he is gone,

Or you can smile because he lived,

You can close your eyes and pray that he will come back,

Or you can open your eyes and see all that he has left.

Your heart can be empty because you can't see him

Or you can be full of the love that you shared,

You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday,

Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.

You can remember him and only that he is gone

Or you can cherish his memory and let it live on,

You can cry and close your mind,

be empty and turn your back,

Or you can do what he would want:

smile, open your eyes,

love and go on.
