

Jeffrey Michael Nyhusmoen, age 58, of Sheyenne, ND, passed away at his home, Wednesday, December 11, 2019, surrounded by his family and closest friends.

Jeffery was born April 9, 1961, at the New Rockford hospital to Arnold and LouAnn and baptized at the First Lutheran Church. His family moved to Washington state where he graduated from Hazen High School in Renton, Washington. Jeff worked with much success as a welder in WA. He started a family and returned to ND to plant some roots of his own.

Upon returning to North Dakota, Jeff worked several jobs such as a radiator repairer, welder, plant operator at the gravel pits, cows, farming and inspired to run the Nyhusmoen farm. Jeff was a true outdoorsman who loved to fish, trap and shoot guns. He worked hard for everything he had and took pride in everything he did. He enjoyed many things such as spending time with his children, grandchildren, friends and his adopted son, Matt Ziegler. One of Jeff's favorite pastimes include Sunday Fundays at Swen's, drinking beer and watching football. Jeff was a tree huggin' hippy that loved a simple life with simple joys.

Jeffery is survived by parents, Arnold "Arnie" and LouAnn Nyhusmoen, his aunt, Connie (Dwayne) Brown, siblings, Richard (Marylou) Nyhusmoen, Pamela (Randy) Jerome, Eric (Lynette) Nyhusmoen, children, Nicolle (Andrew) Fruehan, Alexandria Nyhusmoen, and Shay (Adam) Donaldson, eight grandchildren, and eight nieces and nephews.

Jeffery is preceded in death by Sigurd and Blenda Nyhusmoen, Clarence and Lilly Moen and cousin, Danny Brown.

Celebrating The Life Of

Jeff M. Nyhusmoen

April 9, 1961 – December 11, 2019

It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you didn't go alone
A part of us went with you
The day God took you home.

A million times we've missed you
A million times we've cried,
If love could have saved you
You never would have died.

Now to the grave we travel
The flowers placed with care
No one knows the heartache
As we turn to leave you there.

If tears could build a stairway
And heartache make a lane
We'd walk a path to Heaven
And bring you back again.
