

Donald “Duane” Anderson, age 82, of New Rockford passed away Saturday, January 18, 2020, at his home in New Rockford, ND.

Donald Duane Anderson was born September 10, 1937, in Maddock, ND, the son of Oscar and Alyce (Larson) Anderson. He grew up near Bremen and attended the Bremen School through the 8th grade. Duane served in the United States Army from 1961-1963. He worked for a number of area farmers and also raised cattle with his dad. His last employment was at the Dakota Growers Pasta Plant in Carrington, which he really enjoyed.

Duane was a member of Augustana Lutheran Church until its closure; he then transferred to Trinity Lutheran Church in Bremen. Duane was also a member of the American Legion in New Rockford.

Duane is survived by his sister, Ada DeBolt, Jamestown; and two nieces and three nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents, sister, Doris (Leo) Fornshell, and brother-in-law, Frank DeBolt.

In Honored Memory

When I come to the end of my journey
And I travel my last weary mile
Just forget if you can, that I ever frowned
And remember only the smile.
Forget unkind words I have spoken
Remember some good I have done
Forget that I ever had heartache
And remember I've had loads of fun.
Forget that I've stumbled and blundered
And sometimes fell by the way
Remember I have fought some hard battles
And won, ere the close of the day.
Then forget to grieve for my going
I would not have you sad for a day
But in summer just gather some flowers
And remember the place where I lay.
And come in the shade of evening
When the sun paints the sky in the west
Stand for a few moments beside me
And remember only my best.
- Mrs. Lyman Hancock
