

Eugene W. Anderson, age 98, of New Rockford, formerly of rural Sheyenne, passed away Thursday, March 19, 2020, at the Lutheran Home of the Good Shepherd, New Rockford, ND.

Eugene Wilton Anderson was born January 28, 1922, on the family farm in Grandfield Township, Eddy County, North Dakota, the son of Oscar and Martha (Johnson) Anderson. He attended country school in Grandfield Township.

Eugene started farming with his father and farmed until he retired in 1986. He later moved into New Rockford and in October of 2019, entered the Lutheran Home of the Good Shepherd.

He was a member of Augustana Lutheran Church until its closure and was treasurer and financial secretary of the Augustana Cemetery for many years. He was a member of Grace Lutheran Church, Sheyenne at the time of his death. He was also a clerk and treasurer for the Grandfield Township Board and served on the Credit Union Supervisory Committee for several years. Eugene was also a member of the Luther League, Farmers Union Local and Livestock Shipping.

Eugene is survived by his sister, Muriel Thoreson, Devils Lake, ND; several nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents, brother Clarence, two sisters Myrtle Strand and Lucille Gestson.

The Sheaf of Wheat... Symbol of Christian Faith

The seeds of faith are sown
in the human personality
and grow into the mature faith of the Christian man or woman.

The sown seed must lose its life in order that it may develop and grow and multiply.
So symbolically, a sheaf of wheat is used by

Christians to mark the passing of a fellow Christian.

Death is not the end
but the beginning of life eternal.
The mature grain in the sheaf is the direct symbol of the Resurrection –
the life beyond the grave,
the fulfillment
of the promise
of Jesus Christ.
