

Joseph W. Troske, age 85, of New Rockford, ND, died Thursday, May 21, 2020, at the Lutheran Home of the Good Shepherd in New Rockford.

Joseph Troske was born September 24, 1934, at New Rockford, ND, the son of Erwin and Evelyn (Pattee) Troske. He grew up in the New Rockford, ND, area. Joseph attended school in New Rockford, ND.

On January 12, 1958, Joseph was united in marriage to Irene Dungan at Grace City. From this union, they had three sons. They lived in New Rockford for their first winter before moving to the Troske family farm. In 1966, they moved to their own farm on Highway 15. Joe spent his life doing what he enjoyed, farming. He hunted in his younger days and had a crop duster plane that he loved to fly.

Joe knew everything about the Troske family history and always enjoyed visiting with family and sharing family stories. You would usually find Joe with a camera in his hand and he would always have lots of pictures to share. Irene and him enjoyed traveling and square dancing.

He is survived by his son, David; one brother in law, Dick (Karen) Dungan; sister-in-law, Conni Dungan and several nieces and nephews.

Joseph was preceded in death by his parents; his wife; two sons, Mark and Brian, brother Erwin, sister Anna Marie Weber and sister-in-law, Dorothy Martens.

In Loving Memory Of

Joseph W. Troske

When I Come To The End Of My Journey

When I come to the end of my journey
And I travel my last weary mile
Just forget if you can, that I ever frowned
And remember only the smile.
Forget unkind words I have spoken
Remember some good I have done
Forget that I ever had heartache
And remember I've had loads of fun.
Forget that I've stumbled and blundered
And sometimes fell by the way
Remember I have fought some hard battles
And won, ere the close of the day.
Then forget to grieve for my going
I would not have you sad for a day
But in summer just gather some flowers
And remember the place where I lay.
And come in the shade of evening
When the sun paints the sky in the west
Stand for a few moments beside me
And remember only my best.
