

Jonathan Thomas Aljets, age 25, was born August 29, 1995, in Carrington, North Dakota, the son of Thomas and Laurie (Rensch) Aljets. He left this earth unexpectedly on October 27, 2020.

Jonathan graduated from Carrington High School in 2014 and spent time working various jobs, meeting friends along the way. He was currently employed at Cenex as the night manager, and he enjoyed interacting with the customers and his coworkers.

Jonathan loved nature and animals. He had a deep appreciation for nature and would often enjoy a drive in the country looking at the true beauty of this earth. He enjoyed the stars, landscapes, and the simplicity of the North Dakota terrain.

Jonathan's laughter, gentle soul and laid-back personality will be greatly missed by all who knew him. He loved deeply and was deeply loved by his family, who wished the best for him as he navigated life. He was a deep thinker, a conversationalist, and came to know God through reading the Bible front to back.

Jonathan is survived by his parents Thomas and Laurie Aljets (Carrington); four sisters Katie (Dean) Schloss, Violet, Elise, and Troy, Bismarck, ND; Ann (Nathan) O'Brien, Joseph, Benjamin, Hezekiah, Isaac, and Elizabeth, Britton, SD; Jane (Thomas) Sauby, Charles, Duke, Scarlett, and Pearl, Carrington, ND; and Nadine (Bradley) Erckenbrack, Saipan, Northern Mariana Islands; many aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

Jonathan is preceded in death by grandparents George and Dorothy Aljets and Gene and Shirley Rensch. He was greeted in heaven by his godmother, Debbie Semmen.

You Never Said Goodbye

You never said I'm leaving

You never said goodbye.

You were gone before I knew it,

And only God knew why.

A million times I needed you,

A million times I cried.

If love alone could have saved you,

You never would have died.

In life I loved you dearly,

In death I love you still.

In my heart you hold a place,

That no one could ever fill.

It broke my heart to lose you,

But you didn't go alone

For part of me went with you,

The day God took you home.

I AM NOT THERE

Do not stand at my grave and weep,

I am not there, I do not sleep

I am in a thousand winds that blow,

I am the softly falling snow.

I am the gentle showers of rain,

I am the fields of ripening grain.

I am in the morning hush,

I am in the graceful rush

Of birds in circling flight.

I am the star shine of the night.

I am in the flowers that bloom,

I am in a quiet room,

I am the birds that sing,

I am in each lovely thing.

Do not stand at my grave and cry,

I am not there. I did not die.
