Cowboy Prayer

Dear Lord, we take a moment from
Our daily life, aware of all the Blessings you have bestowed
Upon us, to offer a heartfelt prayer
From a cowboy. We pray, Father, that you shall be with Each of the contestants in the arena this day,
And we pray that you shall take our
Hand and guide each of us through life's arena.

We don't ask for special favors, Lord.
We do not seek the calf that runs straight
Or to shun the steer that won't lay.
We don't ask to draw around the chute fighting
Horse, or condemn the ride not bringing pay.
The challenge of life we welcome and embrace.

As cowboys, we simply pray
That you help us live our lives
On this great earth as
Honest as the day is long and true,
And the sky is blue.
And heavenly Father, when it comes
Time to make our last long ride
To that heavenly countryside,
Where grass grows thick and long,
And the water flows clear and deep,
That you will greet us at the gate to
Your kingdom and say –

“Welcome to Heaven Cowboy,
Your entry fees are paid”
Amen
