

Patricia (Pat) Kaye Grosser, 63 years of age, of Carrington, ND, died after a brief illness.

Pat was born on December 26, 1957, the third of four children born to John F. and Katharine (Lech) Grosser. Pat attended Carrington and New Rockford public schools. She proudly completed the resident Life Skills Program at Harvey, ND. She was strongly independent and approached challenges with determination. Throughout her life she worked at a book bindery and as a hotel housekeeping staff member. She was also employed at Seaburg Drug, Jackie's Diner and Dairy Queen. She was adventurous and enjoyed traveling with a Renaissance fair, a cruise to Mexico, and trips to Branson. She especially treasured her trip to Italy including a papal audience in St. Peter's Square at Vatican City.

Pat was a very vocal fan of all of the Carrington High School sports teams and a fervent supporter of the Minnesota Vikings professional football team. She enjoyed number and word puzzle books, coloring, and collecting stuffed animals (mostly doggies). She never met a friendly dog that she did not fall in love with.

Patricia was preceded in death by her mother Katharine Grosser and her father John Grosser.

Patricia is survived by two sisters, Dolores Loffelmacher and husband John, Grace City, ND and Annette Carlson and husband Casey, Reeder, ND; one brother Timothy Grosser and wife Valerie, Junction City, KS; two half-siblings Lenora Lee and husband Paul and John Grosser and wife Kathy; along with 8 nieces and nephews; and 11 great nieces and nephews.

If You Could See Me Now

If you could see me now, you wouldn't shed a tear.

Though you may not understand why I'm no longer here.

Remember my spirit, that's the real me.

I'm still very much alive, oh,
if you could only see!

I've beheld our Father's face.

I've touched my Savior's hand.

The angels all rejoiced
as I entered the Promised Land.

Beyond the gates of pearl,

I walk on golden streets.

I've touched the walls of jasper,
dipped my foot in the crystal sea.

The beauty is beyond words, nothing can compare.

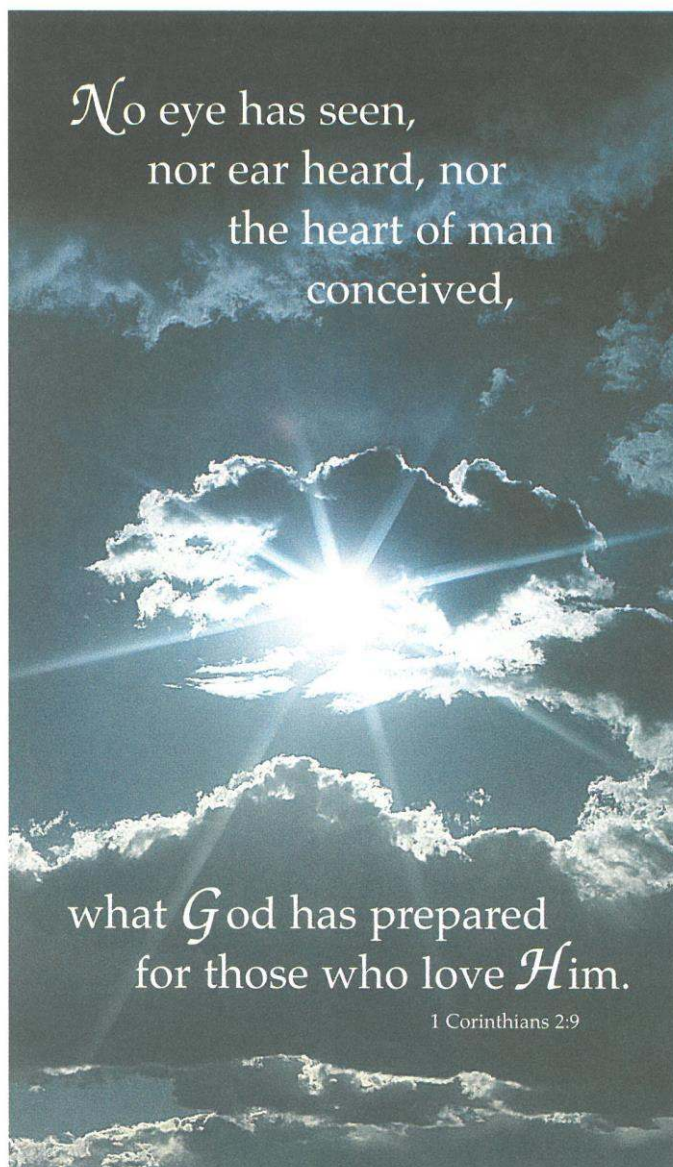

I've even seen your mansion;
someday I will meet you there.

Allow Jesus to be your guide,
His word will show you the way.

So, please, don't cry!

We will meet again someday!
