I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call;
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way.
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, he set me free.

Thank you, Mom,
For always being there to share in my laughter
and to comfort me in my tears;

for providing me with the warmth, security, love, and understanding that only a mother could provide. And although at times I may appear ungrateful, it is not that I do not love you or that I am not thankful. It is just that at times it seems hard to find the words to say thank you. Not only for being the wonderful mother that you have always been and will forever continue to be, but also to say thank you for being my best friend and for just being you. And along with these thanks come these very simple-yet so important-words, words for you to always remember...
We love you, Your Children
