Mary Ann loved to cook and bake for her family and friends. You could often find fresh cookies or a delicious pie in her kitchen. She enjoyed entertaining visitors and chatting with good friends at the restaurant. Shopping for a bargain, especially in the antique store, was among her favorite activities. Christmas was her favorite time because many from the family would return home to celebrate. She always had a smile on her face when the house was full of kids. Most of her joy came from her family and she loved making them happy whenever she could.

Celebrating The Life Of

Mary Ann Lies

October 12, 1935 – New Rockford, ND

July 5, 2022 – Goldsboro, NC

Weep not for me though I have gone
Into that gentle night
Grieve if you will, but not for long
Upon my soul's sweet flight

I am at peace, my soul's at rest
There is no need for tears
For with your love I was so blessed
For all those many years

There is no pain, I suffer not
The fear is now all gone
Put now these things out of your thoughts
In your memory I live on

Remember not my fight for breath
Remember not the strife
Please do not dwell upon my death
But celebrate my life
