

Judy Ann Volk (Longre), 74, of Kenmare/Carrington, ND, passed away peacefully on the morning of November 18, 2022. Judy was surrounded and comforted by family members and friends at her home in Carrington.

Judy was born on March 28, 1948, at the Kenmare Deaconess Hospital in Kenmare, ND. She was the youngest of 7 children, fourth daughter of Virginia Mae Brien (mother). She married the love of her life and best friend, Stephen Francis Volk, on May 11, 1970, in Minot, ND. She was an accomplished quilter (volunteering with the local quilting club), gardener, [iPad/Computer] casino game millionaire, and bingo queen. She was passionate about service to others, supporting the visions/dreams of all those around her (especially her children and grandchildren), and striking up conversation with everyone at Prairie Inn who offered banana cream pie.

Judy is survived by her husband, Stephen; her three children, Tamara Rutherford (Daryl) of Syracuse, IN, Stephanie Volk of Park Rapids, MN, and James Carr Jr. of Carrington, ND. Her grandchildren, Jessica McCullough, Carrie McCullough (Sean), Stephen Rutherford (McKayla), Gabrielle Hewitt [Volk] (Braxton) and two great grandsons, Marcus and Korbin Adams; sisters, Beverly Harris, Great Falls, MT, Cheryl Maenza, Lincoln, ND; brothers, Glenn Longre, Romulus, MI, and Clifford Longre (Nancy), Lincoln, ND.

Quilter's Poem

*Love is a quilt, a quilt is love.
Both love and a quilt should be
Soft enough to comfort you
Bright enough to cheer you
Generous enough to enfold you
Light enough to let you move freely
Strong enough to withstand adversity
Durable enough to last a lifetime and given gladly, from the heart.*

This poem is given with all my quilts I send away.
