

Donna Weber went home into the arms of Jesus, on Sunday morning, July 28, 2024, at Jamestown Regional Medical Center.

Donna Mae Klein was born May 3, 1933, in Foster County. Donna was adopted by her grandparents, Wilhelm and Louisa Klein, and at the age of 12 she went to live with Andrew and Sophie Klein. She graduated from Carrington High School in 1951. After graduation, she worked at the North American Creamery in Carrington.

On July 26, 1953, Donna was united in marriage to the love of her life Dwayne Weber at Calvary Baptist Church in Carrington. She taught at a one-room school for three years after she and Dwayne married. Donna was blessed with five children, Denelle, Denette, Dennis, Darin, and Delaine. She was a happy farm wife who loved her family and most of the time the farm in rural Sheyenne.

Donna was active in homemakers, she was the secretary of Eddy County Farm Bureau for many years, taught Sunday School and was a treasurer for many years at church, decorated wedding cakes, and was an EMT on the New Rockford Ambulance service. Donna loved to quilt and made a quilt for each family member including her grandchildren, even wearing out a sewing machine. She also knitted many sweaters, and crocheted and embroidered many projects. She was an avid reader.

Donna is survived by her four children, Denette (Craig) Meehan, of New Rockford, Dennis (Annie) Weber, Darin (Sis) Weber both of Sheyenne, and Delaine (Jamie) Rademacher of New Rockford; eleven grandchildren and twenty great-grandchildren; four brothers, Ronald Kuehn, James Behrens, Kermit Behrens, and Aaron Behrens; three sisters, Betty Jenkins, Phyllis Hajart, Arlys Hull and one foster-sister, Gladys Zink.

Donna was preceded in death by her husband, Dwayne; a daughter, Denelle; and two great-granddaughters, Gracie and Britton.

In Loving Memory

Donna Weber

MAY 3, 1933 – JULY 28, 2024

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call;
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way.
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, he set me free.
